

Child Abuse Listening and Mediation, or CALM, has added Bridget Foreman to its board of trustees.

Foreman is a manager in the Tax Department of Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP. Her expertise lies in the financial services issues related to franchisees of national restaurant chains. Her business practice is focused primarily on hospitality clients.

Foreman spent six years working within the hospitality market sector at a four-star hotel and resort in various capacities ranging from credit manager to leading the internal audit department. She received her bachelor's in business economics and in German studies from University of California, Santa Barbara.