MISSONI MUST-HAVES Industrial designer Stephen Burks (see readymade-projects.com for other projects and designs) has put a new spin on decoupage with his recycled patchwork vases commissioned by Angela Missoni as part of the Missoni Mogu Fun Fun exhibition at the Salone del Mobile in Milan in 2004. The vessels—covered in scraps of the Italian family's signature knitwear and sealed with resin—give a dramatic punch to classic and oversize vase shapes. Other to-lust-for items from Missoni Home include cozy cashmere throws, exotic rugs named after global spots, from Avalon to Ushuaia, and their artful Passiflora collection of pillows. EXTREME MAKEOVER CALM's (Child Abuse Listening and Mediation) signature Design Showcase Home & Garden event is looking for a beautiful dwelling to design to the nines. Those interested in this luxe opportunity to have their haven remodeled by a team of pros—while helping an amazing cause—should contact Monica Intaglietta at 805-965-2376.

GREAT WALL OF CHINA Bridal couturier Monique Lhuillier has created a new line of fine china, tableware, and crystal stemware, as well as a ceramic, crystal, and glass giftware for Royal Doulton. Some pieces ($150 to $300 per place setting) feature colors and detailing that correspond with the signature sashes
