

Some of the hard working CALM auxiliary volunteers at the check-in desk for the luncheon: Jane Runyen, Phyllis Cox, Jeri Beck and Marlene Perrizo

the Same Dog and a Lot Less Hair.” “I had a professor in college who told me not to come back because I was already a writer,” Goldberg said, though it took him 13 years to finish college and find his way into TV. He laughs today about being a mentor of Spielberg’s and trying to talk him out of making “E.T.” Gary didn’t like it at all but his child said, “Please let him make it.” Ubu was Goldberg and his wife Diana’s dog, whose photo is used for the logo of his production company. Just listening to Gary makes you want to read his book.

Congratulations to all the guest authors who signed books and sat on the dais at the longest head table I’ve ever seen: Mindy Bingham, Polly Bookwalter, Kathryn Cushman, William Davis, Karin Finell, David Gersh, Jackson, Susan Jorgensen, Jennie Nash, Katie Nuanes, Sissy Taran and Weedn.

The afternoon fundraiser ended with everyone going home with armloads of books, while Sharon and Stephanie are already planning next year’s event. For more information about all of CALM’s services, call 965-2376 or visit www.calm4kids.org. 1/17