

Movers & Shakers

Longtime Santa Barbara resident Marlene King will serve as president of the Rotary Club of Santa Barbara.

King has been a member of the organization since 2005 and a member of its Board of Directors since 2004. She is also president and CEO of PowerLink Group, a local marketing and consulting firm that she founded in 1996.

The Rotary Club also elected new board members: Robert Dibley, Bob Fatch, Stephen Millard, Steve Peterson and Laurie Yttri.

Child Abuse Listening and Mediation, or CALM, announced a new president of its Board of Trustees.

Meredith Scott, who has served on the board for the past three years, will head the organization. She is a 12-year member of the CALM Auxiliary and a founding member of the Women's Fund of Santa Barbara.

New board members also taking office are Donna Barranco Fisher-Yates, Jim Acos and Nancy Bollay. CALM is a non-profit organization that focuses on preventing and treating child abuse and family violence.

Hospice of Santa Barbara, Inc., recently announced Gabriela Dodson as its new director of clinical services.

Dodson previously worked as program director at Angels Foster Care in Santa Barbara, at Cottage Hospital as a medical social worker, and at the Ventura County Department of health as a psychiatric social worker.

Dodson is an American Red Cross volunteer and is a Registered Licensed Clinical Social Worker.