

OUT & ABOUT

---

---

Meredith Scott

Scott to lead CALM board

Meredith Scott has been named president of the board of trustees of Child Abuse Listening and Mediation. She has served on the CALM board of trustees for the past three years and has been a member of the CALM Auxiliary for 12 years, serving as president for two years. She has also co-chaired the CALM Design Showcase House. She is a founding member of the Women's Fund of Santa Barbara and is a past president of the San Marcos PTSA. Other CALM board of trustees officers include Donna Barranco Fisher-Yates, vice president; Jim Acos, financial vice president; and Nancy Bollay, secretary. CALM focuses on preventing, assessing and treating child abuse and family violence through comprehensive programs.