

OUT & ABOUT

Ben Romo

Romo named to CALM board

Ben Romo was named a member of the board of trustees of Child Abuse Listening Mediation. Mr. Romo is a Santa Barbara native who served as political consultant and district representative for Congresswoman Lois Capps. He also owned a consulting business focusing on local politics and public relations. Mr. Romo is now director of community education and special projects at the Santa Barbara County Education Office. CALM is a nonprofit agency dedicated to the treatment and prevention of child abuse.

— Charlotte Boechler