CASA Golf Tournament; CALM Celebrity Authors' Luncheon; News-Press Lifetime Achievement Awards

The CASA Golf Tournament gave players plenty of pleasurable options to donate money in an event that went without a hitch, a feat that was aided no doubt by the immaculate weather and the "long-legged, short-skirted, smiling volunteers" tending each hole. The CALM Celebrity Authors' Luncheon derives a lot of its success from its guest authors (in 2006 it was Chris Kennedy Lawford, Gregg Hurwitz, Denise Nicholas, Tab Hunter and Teri Garr), who are each interviewed consecutively in proceedings that seem to always unfold seamlessly. Meanwhile, the News-Press Lifetime Achievement Awards put a dinner at the Biltmore, tributes to three individuals and a stand-up routine by surprise guest Jay Leno all into one memorable gala that Lorraine Wilson says is a credit to News-Press co-publisher Arthur Von Wiesenberger's organizational talents.
