

---

Save Date

MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS AND SHOW
YOUR SUPPORT FOR THESE CHARITIES.

MARCH

March 10: The American Heart Association of Ventura's GO RED FOR WOMEN LUNCHEON takes place at the Westlake Village Hyatt and includes a health fair and screenings. (Danielle Dietz, 213-291-7048; danielle.dietz@heart.org)

March 12: The Boys & Girls Club of Santa Barbara holds its annual auction and gala, THE SKY'S THE LIMIT, at The Armory. Since 1938 the organization has been keeping local children off the street, out of trouble, and in a positive learning environment. (boysgirls.org)

March 18: The Thousand Oaks Woman's Club celebrates more than 45 years of service in the Conejo Valley with its fundraiser luncheon and fashion show, MAKING MAGIC IN THE CONEJO VALLEY, at Los Robles Greens in Thousand Oaks. The organization chooses one charity to donate to: This year's recipient is Westminster Free Clinic, which provides free and low-cost care to families in the Conejo Valley. (thousandoakswomansclub.org)

March 19: Assistance League of Ventura and the Nancy R. Brandt Auxillary will hold their annual fundraiser COME TRAVEL WITH US at the Pierpont Inn in Ventura. Proceeds benefit the Assistance League School in Oxnard for preschool children with special needs, Operation School Bell, Girls' Club/Teen Club in Ventura, and help pay for Assault Survivor Kits in conjunction with the Ventura County Safe Harbor Program. (assistanceleagueventuracounty.org)

March 19: Child Abuse Listening & Mediation's annual AUTHORS LUNCHEON, now in its 25th year, takes place at Fess Parker's Doubletree Resort in Santa Barbara. Several noted writers will be on hand, including Santa Barbara resident and best-selling author Sue Grafton. (calm4kids.org)

